

WILLIAM PHILLIPS

August 16, 1926.

Night Watchman in September, 1922 at Women's College.

TESTIFIED (Page 179, et seq.):

Made a statement at the New Brunswick Prosecutor's office (179).

Went to work about 7 o'clock on the evening of September 14, 1922 (179).

Was doing his general work watching along Nichol Avenue and George Street between 12 and 2 (179).

Heard dog barking while sitting on the porch of Cooper Hall (180).

Went to the rear on Redmond Street (180).

Saw a woman walking on Redmond Street, who went into the rear Redmond Street entrance of the Hall property, passing Phillips on the opposite side of the street (180).

Woman wore a long coat and was on the side of the street where there were no lights (180-1).

After woman passed Mr. Bennett came out of his house on the opposite side of Redmond Street and asked Phillips if everything was O. K. (181).

Could not identify woman as Mrs. Hall (181).

Resigned from Women's College about two and one-half years ago (182).
